Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Tuesday 01 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny and warm on Tuesday, with any fog soon clearing.

Today:
A dry, fine and sunny morning for much of the region, with any mist or fog affecting Norfolk soon clearing. Staying dry with long periods of sunshine through the afternoon. Warm, but cooler and a little breezy on the coast. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry evening with plenty of clear periods. Staying dry and clear through the early hours, with generally light winds. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Wednesday:
A fine, dry and sunny morning and feeling warm. Sunshine becoming a little hazier during the afternoon with a risk of heavy showers into the evening and overnight. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Band of showers clearing north on Thursday and weakening. Mainly dry but generally hazy sunshine Friday, but with a low risk of heavy showers. Mainly dry and warm on Saturday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.